SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

Wm. R. Uber, deputy supreme chief ranger of the Independent Order of Foresters is here for the purpose of organizing a lodge of the order in Globe.

Ben J. Kellner arrived from Phoenix last Thursday night, and went to San Carlos on Monday to take a position in E. F. Kellner & Co's store at the agency.

Mrs. J. Harvey Harris has purchased the millinery business of Mrs. Grant Allison, and has moved the stock into the building adjoining J. G. Oldfield & Co's store on the north.

A shipment of 1000 head of cattle will be made from Globe tomorrow, to California. The cattle are from the herds of the Shanleys, Horrells, Armstrong, Gibson and others.

Mrs. Alex Borquez returned last Saturday from Pima fully restored to health, having gained twenty pounds in weight during her stay there. Her recovery is ascribed to the successful treatment given her by Dr. Wightman.

W. O. Kellner, manager of E. F. Kellner & Co's business at San Carlos, spent Sunday here with his family. He reported matters quiet at the agency. The Indians have learned that the issue of rations to them will be continued, and they are apparently content.

Geo. J. Stoneman, who recently purchased a plot of ground fronting 65 ft. on Hill street from H. C. Hitchcock and adjoining the latter's residence on the south, has begun the erection of a five-room dwelling. It will be a substantial structure, fitted with many modern conveniences.

The Armer boys and others arrived this morning from upper Salt river valley with 105 head of cattle from the herds of Tobe Cline, Henry Armer and J. W. Voris. The cattle are included in the shipment to be made to California tomorrow, by Frank Treat, of Tucson.

Upon the advice of General Funston, based upon the report of Col. Lebo, commanding at Fort Grant, the Interior department has wisely concluded that the government must continue to feed the Indians on the San Carlos reservation, and has revoked the order to discontinue the issue of rations after June 27.
